The Annual Meeting of Olivedale Senior Citizens of Fairfield County Inc. will be Wednesday, March 27, 2019. Registration will begin at 9:30a with business meeting beginning promptly at 10:30a.

There are no proposed amendments to the Olivedale By-Laws.

Elections to the Board will take place. The Board is presenting the following officer candidates:

President -	Peg Clifford
Vice President -	Georgia Roebuck
Secretary -	Ronda Farher
Treasurer -	Karen Sanner
Legal Advisor -	Tom Corbin

The following names will be on the ballot as candidates for the Board. Ballots will be cast for four candidates. The candidate with the fifth highest votes will replace an unexpired term.

Debbie Arnett

Debra grew up in Sugar Grove and has lived her entire life around the Lancaster area. She is married (44 years) and has 1 daughter and 3 grandchildren. She has been a member of Olivedale since 2009. She enjoys playing euchre at Olivedale and has taken advantage of the pool and exercise facilities in past years. She has served on the board for the past 2 years and would like to continue to be of value to this board.

Lewis Bell

Lewis has been a member of Olivedale for over 5 years. He was born and raised on a farm. Graduated High School and was drafted into the Army 2 years later. He served two years and used his G.I. bill to go back to school learning to work on radios and TVs. After graduating from Devry and the Industrial Training Institute, he went to work at McAuley Manufacturing in Bremen where he retired in 1996. He's a widower who enjoys his hobbies like bowling in Olivedale's league and belonging to the Veterans group of which he served as past Commander. He would be honored to serve another term on the Olivedale Board.

Barbara Conrad

Barbara has been a member of Olivedale for approximately 3 years and has enjoyed playing in the Euchre Club. She and her friend Missie volunteer to do the grocery shopping for euchre prizes and help set-up for the game. She has been blessed with a husband of 46 years, 4 children, 14 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild. She is retired with 30+ years in retail management. She has made many friends while at Olivedale and hopes to continue to do so.

Betty (Missie) Garrett

Missie (a widow since 2015); was married for 38 years, having 2 children and now 3 grandchildren. She is a retired Supervisor over medical assistants and was an X-ray technician with 17 years of experience in a physician's office and working as a triage nurse. Missie's nursing duties also included purchasing medical supplies, attending staff meetings and much decision making. She currently volunteers to do the grocery shopping for euchre prizes along with set-up and on occasion running the game. She enjoys interior design, bowling, oil painting, cake decorating and mushroom hunting. Missie feels she would be an asset to the Olivedale Board, as decision making, problem solving and working well with others are a few of her highest qualities. She is an honest person who always gives 110%.

Annual Meeting

Diane Heimberger

Diane has been a member of Olivedale for many years, and as the staff jokes, practically lives at Olivedale because you will find her there most days of the week. She plays cribbage, Shanghai, dominoes, hand and foot, and Bingo. She volunteers to help with newsletter folding, Bingo set-up, 2nd Tuesday lunch and special events. She comes for waffles and lunch and also helps in the kitchen when needed. She is an ambassador for Olivedale and the groups within she participates. She loves to meet new members and enjoys dressing up for different events and holidays to make people smile. Due to her involvement at Olivedale, she feels she is a good candidate for Board Member.

Sonja Hoffmann

Sonja is a retired beauty skin care educator. She has been a member of Olivedale for 14 years and is a born leader. She is a leader in the garden group, helps with newsletters, and baking angel food cakes. She volunteers to serve at luncheons and dinners. She enjoys social activities such as line dancing, playing cards, dances and the Red Hats. Olivedale has given her so many reasons to keep active that she wants to return the favor.

Peggy McManis

Peggy has been a member of Olivedale for several years and volunteers to oversee Grannies Attic during our pancake breakfast which she truly loves. She also helps serve and prep for Olivedale events and 2nd Tuesday lunches. She has a passion for Bingo and plays every Thursday, never wanting to miss. She has met so many good people and loves being around them. If she is needed and is able to help, she will.

William Reed

Bill has been a member of Olivedale Senior Center since April 2017. He is a member of The Military Veterans of Olivedale where he served as 2018 Finance Officer and currently as the 2019 Commander. Bill has a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Mount Vernon Nazarene University; was a two year president of the PTO and served on the Citizens Advisory Board for Riverview School District; served one term as a township trustee in the position of chairman and has volunteered in several community veteran activities. He also had 32 years of different management positions for companies with up to 8200 employees. He believes his education and experience would be a benefit as a member of the Olivedale Board.

Helen Walters

Helen has been a member of Olivedale for many years. She served as Secretary in the office and Treasurer of the Board for 8 years. She volunteers as cashier at pancake breakfasts, has served as Treasurer of the Olivedale Bowling league for 8 years. Helen retired from a bank as secretary for 13 years. She feels her experience with Olivedale will help her serve on the Olivedale Senior Center Board.
