Celebrate October

October is a month rich in history and natural beauty with its vibrant autumn colors. It is often associated with harvest festivals, celebrating the bounty of crops such as pumpkins, apples, and corn. It is a time for cultures to give thanks for the harvest and prepare for the winter months ahead.
We know that October brings the Fairfield County Fair, the Pumpkin Show and the highly anticipated pumpkin hike at Alley Park.
So, get out and enjoy the rich tapestry of October.

THE "BOOKIES"

Tuesday, October 21 at 1:00p as the Bookies visit 'The Heaven and Earth Grocery Store' by James McBride. Set in 1972 Pottstown, PA, where a skeleton is found at the bottom of a well. The skeleton's secrets were kept by Jewish and Black residents of rundown Chicken Hill neighborhood where folks marginally survive. Years ago, a deaf Black child is harbored there when the state wants him institutionalized. The town's bigoted whites, particularly the doctor, are set against the child, but the love and community of Chicken Hill neighbors will not be overcome. This lyrical book is NOT in a book club kit, so order your copy from Fairfield Library ASAP. Questions? Call Barb Ramsey, 740-653-3897.

Ready to dance into 2026? We are! We've been looking at dance attendance and now it's your turn to tell us what makes you want to get on the dance floor. Help us decide: are you team Band or team DJ? If you prefer a little of both, let us know your ideal split! For example, you could say 70% DJ and 30% Band. Your opinion matters and we look forward to bringing you the experience you ask for so we can boogie into 2026!
